Many of them will be recognized as vessels which have gained the very highest character, by a succession of unusual rapid passages.

People's Mass State Convention,

AT MADISON, THURSDAY, JULY 13.

☞ ALL MEN opposed to the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise—the Extension of Slavery, and the Rule of the Slave Power, are invited to meet at Madison, Thursday, July 13, to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to prevent the further encroachments of the Slave Power, and to expel all Compromises in favor of Slavery, and to restore to the principle of Freedom as the rule of the Territories, the spirit of Freedom as the rule of the Territories, the spirit of the Ordinance of 1787. The time has come for the People to act. Men of the North, Men for the sake of Freedom. There is no time to lose. We must unite and be free, or divide and be slaves. Shall we be the provincial bonds of the Slaveholding States of Nebraska alike? MANY CITIZENS.

☞ Let Democrats throughout the State, friendly to the object, act on it, all please copy.

☞ For Telegraphic Despatches, See Third Page.

News by Telegraph.

A variety of miscellaneous items may be found under the telegraph head. The details of the Canada's news show that Silistria still holds out.—The Russians are making prodigious efforts to take and the allies to relieve it. The news from Washington is that the United States are about to take possession of the Sandwich Islands and protect them against France, England, and the rest of the world.

An Affectionate Exhortation.

The Morning News of Saturday addresses "a few words to anti-Nebraska Democratic papers in Wisconsin," as a warning to them not to "play into the hands of the Whigs on the Nebraska question," by publishing any more articles calculated to arouse the indignation of the unsuspecting reader towards the author of the bill, the head of the National Democratic party who approved it, and their friends in various States who sustain it." Seeing that the bill is passed and the mischief done, the News holds that it is best for the party papers, where they cannot approve, or acquiesce, to follow the Democratic lead and maintain an "expressive silence," rather than indulge in "hurtful denunciations and unavailing regrets," which may weaken and destroy "the Democratic ascendancy in this state," and give "aid and comfort" to the wicked Whigs.

The exhortation of the News might possibly find more willing listeners if its own practice did not confound its precepts. Here has the News been diligently engaged, these six months past, in helping the aforesaid wicked Whigs to wage an uncompromising war against the State Administration. We have still nothing about "Barstow and the balance," or the late Legislature, which the News has not more than confirmed, and not the News only, but a majority of the Democratic papers in the State. Now, seeing that "Barstow and the balance" were in power for two years at any rate, why should the News indulge in these "hurtful denunciations and unavailing regrets," to the detriment and possibly the destruction of the Democratic party in this State, and the great delight and satisfaction of the Whigs? Why not do—as it advises its anti-Nebraska contemporaries to do—submit in silence, rather than peril the fortunes of the party by speaking out? Plainly because the News thought the occasion extraordinary, duplicity, abuse of power and usurpation of authority, whereof "Barstow and the balance" stand convicted, too infamous to be borne; and because, moreover, it felt that if the Democratic press of the State justified, palliated, or winked at these outrages, the People would visit the sins of the rulers upon the heads of the party which elected and sustained them. In other words, the News and those of its party value freedom more than party, and in the alternative between tossing "Barstow and the balance" overboard, or seeing the Democratic ship go down, with all on board—and they naturally and wisely chose the more agreeable alternative of giving Jonah to the whale, rather than permitting food for the fishes themselves.

Now that we take it, is precisely what the anti-Nebraska Democratic papers in Wisconsin are doing on their own account. They see and feel that the Nebraska issue is death to their party, unless the party repudiate the test. The News affectionately exhorts them to hold their peace: but they must speak out, or it is all up with the democracy. If they refuse to give utterance to the deep strong, universal sentiment of the Free People of the North on this great question, they know, if the News does not, that the People will nevertheless find a way to make that sentiment known, and will suit the action to the word. What care they whether the so-called Democratic Party stand, or fall, in this momentous struggle? A higher interest—an interest of ten-fold more importance than any mere party success—the great interest of Human Rights and Human Freedom—the restoration of the broken-down barrier against the desolating march of slavery—the rescue of the fair territories of Kansas and Nebraska from the blight, the sin and the shame of this foul leprosy—this it is that summons them to speak, and speak they will, though the "democratic ascendancy" should be destroyed in every Free State in the Union.

GRANT COUNTY, WISCONSIN.—The Grant County Herald of Monday last, describes at some length the Southern part of that county. The Herald says that the country is rolling but not broken: well watered by running streams, whose high banks prevent destructive overflows; generally prairie, though with sufficient timber land to supply the demand for fuel, fences, &c.; with fine springs on almost every 80 acre lot, and the soil a dark, rich loam, with limestone and clay basis. It is supposed that most of these lands contain mineral, though only a small portion has been proved to do so. The mineral lands are variously estimated by the owners, at from $20 to $100 per acre: uninproved farming lands are held at $5 and $10 per acre, while in some neighborhoods fair tracts are offered for sale at $2 and $3 per acre.

The population since 1850 has increased a third or more; the inhabitants being mainly Americans and English by birth, with a few Germans and Irish; the access to market, by river and railroad is easy. The Herald adds that there is a good deal of Government Land, still unentered, in different parts of the county, much of it "as fine a soil as ever was seen." Finally, it advises emigrants to keep out of the villages, and locate in the country, where a few years of steady labor will make them prosperous and independent farmers. We don't believe that our cotemporary of the Herald at all exaggerates the attractions or advantages of Grant County.

SHEBOYGAN & MISSISSIPPI RAIL ROAD.—The Common Council of Fond du Lac, by a vote of 4 to 3, have adopted the report of a select Committee, to whom was referred the petition of sundry citizens, for aid in the construction of the Sheboygan and Mississippi Rail Road, which sets forth that "the law authorizing the City Council to loan the credit of the city for Railroad purposes conflicts, and is inconsistent with the City Charter, and is repealed by Sec. 15, Chap. 11, of said City Charter."

SHERIFF'S SECRETARY.—The last number of this excellent democratic paper contains the valedictory of Mr. CHARLES E. MORRIS, who has conducted it during the past year. Mr. QUINTUS, the enterprising publisher, gives notice that as soon as the necessary editorial assistance can be obtained, the publication of the Secretary will be resumed.

☞ The steamers Arctic and Pacific arrived from Chicago on Saturday afternoon, with large loads of passengers and freight. The Pacific left again for Chicago with a good number of passengers.

☞ Judge BARCULO, of the New York Supreme Court, died in New York City, after a brief illness, on the 20th instant.

ILLNESS OF FATHER RITCHIE.—The Washington Correspondent of the N. Y. Express, under date of June 19, reports that Mr. RITCHIE, the veteran editor, is seriously ill.

☞ The New York papers of Wednesday, in their Telegraphic synopsis of Congressional proceedings, report to the passage of the Minesota Land Grant bill, by yeas 95, nays 71. The correspondent of the Evening Express, on the other hand, says that the vote was to replace the bill upon the Calendar.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—There was another unsuccessful attempt in the New Hampshire Legislature, on Wednesday last, to elect a U. S. Senator, for the unexpired term. Mr. WELLS, the Pierce and Nebraska candidate, lacked 26 votes of an election.

CHOLERA IN WASHINGTON.—The telegraph informs us that the cholera has made its appearance in Washington, one death from it having occurred on Tuesday. This will probably hasten the adjournment of Congress.

☞ Will our friends of the Milwaukee Sentinel send us a copy of their paper containing its comments on A. Hyatt Smith's letter to the London Bankers?—Janesville Gazette.

With great pleasure. Indeed, we will do more. We will send our friends of the Janesville Gazette the celebrated letter in full—as we could only make room for portions of it in our columns—and invite them to make their own comments.

THE CONVENTION AT MADISON.—We are authorized by Mr. BRODHEAD, Superintendent of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Rail Road to state that persons desirous of attending the Anti-Nebraska Convention at Madison on the 13th instant, will be carried to and fro at half the usual rates of fare. It was designed to charter a special train, to go to Madison that day, and return the same night, but this cannot well be done without interfering with the regular business of the road.

☞ The Janesville Gazette copies the Madison Democrat's remarkable inventions about the men and means used to defeat the Rock River Valley Land Grab, and adds one or two of its own. For instance:

"Perhaps the people will then learn how much was offered the Jack Downing correspondent of the Sentinel for his services, and whether the promised pay is yet anything more than an unredeemed pledge."

The Sentinel is as curious to learn all about this as "the people" in general. Will not the Gazette tell all it knows?

TO LOVERS OF SACRED MUSIC.—See advertisement of a new Sacred Music Book "the Cytharn," by Mr. WOODBURY, author of the Dulcimer. It is highly spoken of by those who have seen the proof-sheets, and contains a large amount of matter, of foreign as well as native production, arranged and adapted for the church and the family circle. Copies will be sent to teachers, &c., by mail, post paid, on receipt of 60 cts. Address F. J. HUNTINGTON, 23 Park Row, N. Y.

CONFLICTING AUTHORITIES.—The Madison Democrat, organ of our State Administration, in the course of a long homily addressed to the Monroe Sentinel, a democratic paper which is very decided against the Nebraska iniquity, its authors, abettors and apologists, makes the following assertion:

Support of the Nebraska bill is not made a test of Democracy by the friends of the principle of popular sovereignty embraced in that bill; but is made a test by those who misrepresent and oppose it.

The Democrat is itself deceived, or attempting to deceive others. The Federal Administration has made Nebraska the test of party fealty, and the organ of that Administration and of the Democratic party, the Washington Union, distinctly proclaims that "adherence to the principles of the Nebraska bill is INDISPENSABLE to Democratic orthodoxy." Such is the new standard of political faith set up at Washington. It is very possible that the Democrat dont fancy the application of any such test in Wisconsin, but it is none the less true that the friends of the bill insist upon it, here and elsewhere. They treat opposition to Nebraska as treason to the Democratic party.

THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD!—Governor BARSTOW offers a reward of $300 for the apprehension of FRANCIS DONALDSON, indicted for murder in Chippewa County, who has escaped from the custody of the Sheriff of Chippewa, and is now at large.

NEWSPAPER IMPROVEMENTS.—The Detroit Tribune, an able and efficient champion of whig principles in the adjoining State of Michigan, has recently been enlarged to an eight column paper and otherwise improved.

The Janesville Gazette also appears in a new and handsome rig. The Gazette is an excellent paper, well-deserving of the liberal patronage it enjoys, and creditable alike to Janesville and the Wisconsin Press. It has one or two "crotchets" which it would be better without, but is, on the whole, as free from faults as most newspapers.

NEW CHURCH AT PORTAGE CITY.—The Republican says that the Presbyterian Society at Portage are about to erect a large and costly church, in that city. It is to be built of brick and on an eligible site.

PICTORIAL EDITIONS.—The last two numbers of the Madison Journal contain handsome engravings of the "Capitol House" and "Bruen's Block," two of the handsomest structures in the West and decided ornaments to our State Capitol.

"INDIANS ABOUT."—The Portage Republican, says that a large number of Winnebago Indians were at Fort Winnebago on Wednesday last, but where they came from, or what their business was, it could not learn.

SUPREME COURT.—The following gentlemen were admitted to practice in the Supreme Court at the opening of the term on Tuesday last:

Wm. G. Cooper, Jacob Skinner, Leander Wyman, John Hutchinson, O. H. Waldo, Byron Paine, H. W. Lander and S. L. Rose.

SHARP COMPETITION.—The two Rail-Road lines from Cincinnati to Cleveland and Sandusky, are now ticketing passengers thro' to Buffalo for $4.00—the usual fare being $8,00 or $10.00. The Albany Evening Journal says:

The two Railroads from Lake Erie to Cincinnati are trying which can do the other the most harm by carrying Passengers from Buffalo to Cincinnati for $4. This is the natural consequence of building more Railroads than are required for the public exigencies. There is to be "lots of such fun" in Ohio, Illinois, &c. &c.

☞ Senator TOOMBS of Georgia, in his Nebraska speech, expressed his confident belief that in this, as in previous instances, the people of the North would quietly submit to the aggressions of the South. The Otsego (N. Y.) Democrat closes its review of this speech, with the following pertinent answer to Mr. Toombs' prediction:

"They have caved, and will again.' No, Mr. Toombs, the people of the Free States never 'caved' nor faltered in their devotion to liberty.—But they have been basely betrayed by a set of Pierces, Douglases, and their confederates, in the work of treason which has just been consummated. But for this you need not hold the people responsible—for they not only repudiate the treason itself, but the scoundrels who have been engaged in it. They have yet a settlement to make with those who have betrayed their trusts and outraged their feelings, and the South and those Iscariots who have sold the freedom of Nebraska to Slavery will learn to their satisfaction that the people of the North have not, caved."

"PAYING THE PIPER."—Attorney General CUSHING has given an Opinion that the U. S. Treasury must respond to all demands for expenses incurred to uphold the Fugitive Slave Law, that Law being one of the instrumentalities by which Free Soil is to be "crushed out." This Opinion was drawn out by the Secretary of the Interior who hesitated about paying a large bill run up, as was said, to suppress a riot at Detroit.—Alby. Journal.

Cholera and Panic.

From the Quebec Observer, June 14.

Everybody knows the symptoms of Cholera. A great many do not know that it has a marvelous counterpart in the Panic. But this latter is attended with the same deadly pain as the former, the same cold extremities, the same collapse, and—we speak advisedly—the same fatal issue. The causes of the two diseases are generally similar, but ignorance, unmanly fear, and a lack of employment, are additional provocatives to the Panic.

To avoid Cholera a man adopts great regularity of habits. He is careful to eat only those articles which generally agree with him. He avoids all cramming or stuffing (even though he eats a free dinner); he eats not much meat, drinks no stimulating liquors, avoids all excesses, goes to bed at a good Christian hour, and does not get up till he has slept his seven hours. He walks by the cleanest ways, preserves a cheerful spirit and an equable state of mind. He forgives injuries rather than get out of temper, for violent passions beckon on the Cholera. He keeps his accounts straight, owes nothing at the grocer's or small tradesman's, for the sake of a quiet conscience. He sets his house in order that he may be at any hour ready, and so is in the best possible condition for making a long tarry. Such men—unless they are horribly poor, are stuck by the side of streets that escaped the great cleaning, or are in close attendance upon the sick—generally escape the Cholera.

To escape the Panic, a man must adopt precisely the same regimen and something more. He must manage to have business enough on hand to employ his business hours, learn not to be frightened at a shadow, nor to cry before he is hurt. If he will be kind enough to let his stomach attend to his digestion, and confine his brain to other matters, will eat what is set before him under the above-named bonds,—asking no question, except whether he is not eating too much, and remember the poor rather than himself, we can insure him that he shall not die of the panic, nor make himself ridiculous by his feats. Moreover, if he will take his wife and boys over to Hoboken, up to the Crystal Palace, across to Long Island, or down to Staten Island, on Saturdays, he will render his safety doubly sure, besides comforting the wife, and sweetening the boys' cup of care. As to going into the country for the summer, if a man's business will permit, he would do well to be off, whether cholera, panic, or nothing prevails. But if he has any reason for saying 'let him stay;' and if he will conform to the well known laws of nature, he is quite as safe in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, or any other of our coast-wise cities where the cholera prevails, or panic hovers, as in the country doing nothing but teasing the country folk for the use of their horses, or borrowing their boats.—N. Y. Times.

Does the Democratic party in Wisconsin Endorse the Nebraska and Kansas Bill?

This is a question that we have heard asked several times of late, to which we answer unequivocally, No, it does not. Many of the self constituted leaders and officials of the present national or state administrations, do advocate the measures, but so far from these constituting the party, they do not number one in ten of the real bone and sinew of the democratic party in this State.

Our members in Congress voted against the bill, or balanced votes in its favor by pairing off, and of the papers in the State which either in whole or in part advocate the bill, we believe there is not a dozen all told, and if we come to the masses which constitute the strength and reality of the party, an overwhelming Majority are opposed to it.

They why not, democrats, as a party, wash your hands from the foul stain of this deed of darkness; why not as a party, come to your country's rescue? There is not a single obligation binding upon you to support the Nebraska bill, the repeal of the Missouri Compromise or the extension of Slavery; but on the contrary, the support of those principles is in violation of the true & cherished principles in which you have been nurtured—principles which lie at the foundation of our constitution and government.—Monroe Sentinel (Dem.)

From the Cleveland Herald.

The Convention of the 13th.

The State is thoroughly aroused to the recent fearful encroachments of the slavery propagandists, and the Convention called to assemble at Columbus on the 13th of July can not but be harmonious and judicious. The acquaescence in the proposed plan of holding only a delegate Convention, is universal. There are those who prefer a mass gathering, but without exception they are willing to yield the point.

As to the action of the Convention, we can give no better advice than is given in the New York Tribune, of Saturday. By the following direct advice the union of the enemies of the Nebraska bill, throughout the North, can be complete; and the moral effect of their united voice will be most potent for good. The Tribune says:

We receive innumerable letters of suggestion with regard to the ground on which the North shall be mustered and concentrated for the struggle now before us. Some of these letters propose the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law; others the purification of the District of Columbia; others the denial of future Slave Representation; others still, the rejection of any State which applies for admission with a Slave Constitution; but all are agreed in demanding the repeal of the Nebraska Iniquity. The mere statement of these facts indicates the only practicable basis of Union. We can harmonize, act together, and triumph on the basis of Resistance to Douglas's Nebraska Bill, and a Demand for its Repeal, and on no other.—On that basis thousands of our most conservative, prudent, and cautious citizens will distegard all party appeals and act heartily with us.

Slavery has worsted us in past encounters by only attempting one thing at a time, and that the thing nearest to hand. We mean to use the wisdom she has beaten into us, or beaten us into.—While we shall speak our whole mind on every aspect of the times, we stand ready to co-operate for the immediate contest, with all who in good-faith will act with us for the overthrow and punishment of the Missouri Compact breakers.

RESTRAINING VICE.—The following are from the records of Massachusetts in early times:

Nich: Knapp is fyned V pound, for taking upon him to cure the scurvey by a water of noe worth value, which he solde at a very deare rate, to be imprisoned till hee pay his fine, or gite securitye for it, or els to be whipped, & shal be lyable to any man's action of whome hee hath receaved money for the sd water.

It is ordered that Henry Bright shal be set in ye bilbowes for swearing.

Ordered that John Pease shal be whipt & bound to his good behavr, for striking his mother Mrs. Weston, & deryding of her, & for dyvers other misdemeanors & other evil carriages.

Elisabeth, the wife of Thomas Aplegate, was censured to stand with her tongue in a cleft stick, for swearing, railing & revileing.

Capt. Lovell was admonished to take heede of light carriage.

Thom: Potet for suspition of slander, idlenes & stubbornenes, is censured to be severely whipped, & to be kept in hould.

George Munings was fined 20s. for selling beare and keeping a house of entertainment without license.

James Browne was censured for drunkennes, to be set two hours in the bilboes upon the market day, at Boston, publikely.

Beniamin Hubbard was also solemnly admonished of his failing, for being in company with James Browne and the rest, & often drinking of the strong water bottle with them, and not reproving them.

Lawrence Water's wife was enjoined to give John Finch 12d, & Nico: Theale to give Jno. Finch 18d, & Edwd. Lambe to give him 2s, and Lambe was fined 15s 6d for his contempt, & all of them were admonished to avoyde dancing.

THE AFRICANIZATION OF KANSAS.—The Washington correspondent of The Philadelphia North American says:

"The Administration has taken care to prohibit, virtually, by practical measures, the influx of emigrants from the free States. They stand ready now to pour in, but the Commissioner of Indian Affairs has postponed the opening of the country for settlement for six months. The inhabitants of Missouri cannot be restrained from crossing the border and making their locations. But organized bands of emigrants from the North, with their families and stock—and they cannot move in any other way than in large bodies—can and will be prevented, under the instructions lately issued from Washington from going into the Territory. Whether these restrictions apply to Nebraska, I have not been informed. The calculation here is that Kansas will, by these measures, be made a slave territory before any considerable amount of northern emigration can reach it."

MASS CONVENTION.—We publish to-day a call for a Mass Convention of all opposed to the Nebraska bill, and the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. This call is approved by nearly all the Whig and Free Soil papers in the State, and by quite a number of those of the Democratic faith. The object of those issuing the call is undoubtedly good, and we trust may be effected. A union of all those opposed to the extension of Slavery and slave power, could not fail to keep that "peculiar institution" within its present limits, so far as the North is concerned, and we have no doubt such is the desire of nine-tenths of the people, yet we have doubts as to the good that is expected to result from this movement. In our opinion it is premature. But we may be deceived in this respect. At all events "we shall see what we shall see."—Mineral Point Tribune.

A HORSE LAMB.—The Louisville Democrat says that a wife should be like a lamb—tender and nicely dressed.

City Matters.

POLICE COURT, June 24th.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, ESQ., POLICE JUSTICE

A Discovery—Mrs. Robinson alias Mrs. Campbell.

There lived, not very long ago, opposite the gate of the English Cathedral, in Garden street, a rather good looking, genteelly dressed woman, named Campbell, who kept a tavern. She soon became notorious. Of a free and easy disposition, loose notions of morality, and winning manners, she attracted hosts of admirers, and among them a Sergeant of the line, to whom she was afterwards married. Mrs. Campbell indulged in a variety of freaks, as most of our readers will recollect, before her last departure hence. She was even in Court, the observed of all observers, and sat unveiled. By her first marriage well connected, this loose, unfortunate and disorderly woman, now convicted of the heinous crime of murder under the name of Mrs. Robinson, obtained the assistance of the late Robert Wood, Esquire, merchant of this city, on sundry occasions. Married to the late Henry Campbell, she was the wife of a son of an old and esteemed friend of the late Mr. Wood, whom Mr. Wood always took an interest in. He forwarded him in the world as far as his influence, and money even, would do it. Nor did he content himself with serving to his utmost the son of an esteemed friend. When that son had followed his father to the grave, Mr. Wood recollected the wife. That woman repays such kindness by representing herself to be a Miss Wood! The miserable convict was some time a Presbyterian. On one occasion, after the death of her husband, through the services of a clergyman, to whom she had applied for spiritual aid, Mrs. Campbell obtained a sum of money to enable her to go to the United States, where she represented that she had friends. Mr. Wood gave her £20, and the late Hon. John Nielson gave her £20. With this money she started off, went as far as Montreal, and returned to Quebec again. Mr. Nielson called to inquire of her friends whether or no Mrs. Campbell had safely reached her destination, and found the individual whom he had so humanely assisted, "at home." The good old man wished, danced round her, and withdrew. That was Mr. Nielson's mode of saying—"I have been sold!" Mrs. Campbell, naturally a worthless woman, rearly became worse. She is now reaping the fruits of her worthlessness, and endeavors to escape from justice by an affectation of madness, and by pretending to be one of the daughters of her husband's patron. Of course Mr. Campbell knew all about Mrs. McIntosh and all the other Miss Woods, and she has improved her knowledge in the most extraordinary way to her temporary advantage, inasmuch as many people did believe that Mrs. Robinson was not Mrs. Campbell, but a Miss Wood. Murder, however, will out.

Correspondence of the London Times.

Constantinople, May 26.

Visits to the Sweet Waters of Europe are now at an end, and the fashionables of the Turkish world will soon resort to the Sweet Waters of Asia, at some distance up the Bosphorus, nearly opposite the Bebek. An amusing scene took place on Friday at the former spot. A gallant English gentleman was determined to address a few words to some fair inmate of the harem.—He asked a friend to write down for him some complimentary phrases in the Turkish tongue, such as "You are pretty," "I love you," and so on. Armed with his document, he visited the Sweet Waters, and selecting the prettiest face he could find, he leaned in at the carriage window, and proceeded to favor the lady with the contents of the paper, which he drew from his waistcoat pocket. A shrill shriek from the eunuchs betrayed their horror at this audacity. They rushed up and attempted to drag him away. He resisted and one of the guardians drew his sabre.—Our countryman did the same, and the eunuchs fled in dismay. The lady within highly enjoyed the scene, and seemed much pleased at the discomfiture of her tyrants. In fact, the fair creatures are much more independent than of yore; the sumptuary proceedings of former husbands are now impossible, and the ladies have no longer before their eyes the traditional terrors of the sack and the Bosphorus.

AN AWFUL BEREAVEMENT.—We have already alluded to the case of a gentleman now a resident of this city—William Colliss—who lost his wife, and seven children, and upwards of twenty thousand dollars, in the steamship City of Glasgow. His agony of mind under these distressing circumstances may well be imagined. For a time he was threatened with madness. He is now more composed, is intelligent, temperate, and, is extremely anxious to obtain any respectable situation. He is, moreover, without the means of support, and is only solicitous to obtain, by his industry, an honest livelihood. His address has been left with Mr. Dunn, at the Exchange, who will cheerfully give any further particulars.—Phil. Ing. June 17.

FOX RIVER BANK.—This institution, Joseph G. Lawson, Pres., F. Desnoyers, Cash'r, has gone into operation in this city, and its bills have made their appearance. They are very handsome, and attest the good taste of Mr. L., who we believe procured them engraved. The One's have a figure of Liberty on the right, an Indian girl on the left, and a river scene with wigwams and a group of deer in the centre. The Two's have a figure representing Commerce, with ships and agricultural emblems in the centre, an Indian girl on the right, and a female face on the left which bears a very fair resemblance to a young lady we know of in these parts. The Fives have a beautiful agricultural and commercial vignette, a figure of Liberty on the right and a female face on the left.

The Bank commences with a capital of $35,000, having authority to increase to $500,000.—Green Bay Advocate.

TENNESSEE.—The Knoxville Statesman (DEM.) thus places the Press of that State on the Nebraska question:

"The democratic Press of Tennessee is unanimous in support of the Nebraska bill. The Whig Press are all, we believe, against it—three papers only excepted: The Nashville Whig, The Memphis Whig and Enquirer and The Rogersville Times.

The Washington Union predicts that at the next election in New-York, "the friends of the Administration will roll "up a majority." We don't believe they will roll up anything but the whites of their eyes.—Louisville Journal.

Dedication of New Catholic Church.

On Sunday last the German Catholic Church, which has been just erected in this City, was dedicated with imposing ceremonies by Bishop HENNI, assisted by the ministers of the German and French Congregations. The services were commenced in the morning at the first Catholic Church (now set apart we believe, for the French and Irish portion of the society,) and from thence the congregation marched in procession to the new church, where the dedication was completed. The avenue from the street to the Church, and the building itself, were handsomely decorated with boughs, appropriate music was furnished and fine weather added to the beauty and success of the demonstration. The crowd was so immense that hundreds could not obtain admittance.

The large increase of the Catholic population of Green Bay had made this new structure necessary. It is a beutiful building, erected by the energy and for the use of the German Catholics, and does credit to them. We have now in this County five churches of this denomination.—Green Bay Advocate.

LET THERE BE A RALLY!—The Freemens' Convention to be holden in Madison July 13th, bids fair to be the largest gathering, of a political character, that ever assembled in Wisconsin. There may something transpire at this convention that will tell mightily at the fall election; therefore, we will advise every one, who feels interested, to be present on that occasion. Let Columbia and Sauk Counties, be largely represented.—Portage City Republic.

☞ The Green Bay Docks, have been lively during the past week. We counted at one time four steamers and four sail vessels lying here together. The large increase of lumbering operations in this vicinity is giving a new importance to our commercial business.

During the week, the schooner Maine has taken out a cargo of lumber and shingles from O. Gray, of Howard. The schooner Dan Marble took lumber and shingles from O. Drosshy. The brig Maria Hilliard took lumber from Ritche of Depere; and the schooner Congress took lumber from Howe & Co's Steam Mill to Mabbitt & Breed of Milwaukee. Each one of them was loaded to the utmost, and yet the piles of lumber upon our wharves do not seem to be at all diminished.—Green Bay Advocate.

☞ The new Supreme Court reports are out and may be found for sale at Durrie's bookstore in this place. They were printed at the office of the Milwaukee Sentinel and their typographical execution is fine.—Madison Journal.

"MILWAUKEE BRICK."—Some days ago, Wm. Beebe exhibited to us a specimen of Brick made from clay found upon his farm, in Oakfield. In all respects it resembles the far-famed Milwaukee brick and is pronounced by good judges to be equal in quality. The clay from which it was made is abundant, convenient to the railroad, and in the immediate vicinity of running water and a sand bank.—Fond du Lac Union.

DEATH OF WILLIAM HEMPSTEAD, ESQ.—Another of the of the earlier settlers of Galena has gone from us. Yesterday, William Hempstead died, of Consumption, having survived but a few weeks his sister, Mrs. Gratiot. He was born in New London, Conn., on the 23 day of December, 1800, and was consequently in the 54th year of his age. He went to St. Louis in 1811, a boy, and in 1827 he came to Galena, where he continued to reside till his death.—Galena Gazette June 21st.

INTERESTING FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

Marshal Arnaud despatches seventy thousand Anglo-French troops to the relief of Silistria.—They would probably reach there on the 14th June. The chief interest now centers in the question whether Silistria would hold out till then.

Deep political movements are going on between Austria and Prussia.

Several important changes have taken place in British Cabinet.

Lord John Russell appointed President of the Council; Duke of New Castle Minister of War, and Sir Geo Grey Secretary of State, for the Colonies.

On the 31st, the Turks defeated 20,000 Russians at Slatino, killing 500, and capturing several guns. Other encounters, more or less sanguinary, are reported.

All the Russian troops now at Bucharest, are ordered to advance to the Danube.

The Russian forces in Lesser Wallachia are still falling back. All is quiet on the Danube.

The allied fleets are still cruising about, with no enemy in sight.

Nothing further done by the Baltic fleet. Napier's fleet was to go to Helsingfors, and Admiral Correy's, including French Squadron, would cruise off the Southern coast, until arriving near Cronstadt, when both fleets would unite and anchor.

The Greek Ministry is installed, and are dismissing all functionaries implicated in the insurrection.

Intense anxiety prevails in regard to Silistria. Russians have 70,000 men on the spot, and assaults are continued day and night; they succeeded in making a practicable breach, but a sudden rise in the Danube prevented their storming. Advices to the 25th state that the fortress can hold out 15 days. The Commandant, Mustapha Pacha, threatens to blow up the fortress sooner than surrender. On the night of the 26th, the Russians made three attempts to storm, but were repulsed with fearful loss, leaving 1,500 dead. Beneath the ramparts the Turks also made fearful havoc among the Russians, killing and wounding 4,500.

The allied head quarters are established at Varna.

American squadron was at Syria June 1st. Poland is further disarming.

The Emperor of Morocco forbids the entrances of the Russian flag into Moorish ports during the war.

GERMANY.—Meeting between the Emperor of Austria and the King of Prussia, attended by the respective Ministers, was to take place on the 8th of June, on the frontiers. The movement creates some suspicion in Saxony, especially as it has transpired that Count Mostire is bearer of a letter from the Emperor of Austria to Nicholas. It is also rumored that the Russians are inclined to authorize Austria to propose an armistice.

PARIS.—Better feeling on Paris Bourse.

The advance of Russians toward the allied armies is announced, creating considerable uneasiness among the monied world at this place.

It is rumored that the first class citizens are all fleeing from St. Petersburg under the impression that the troops now arriving at that place are Cossacks.

The London Times' Paris correspondent alludes to the existence of an injurious intrigue in Turkish councils and mismanagement in the War Department at Constantinople—Russian bribery hinted at.

Important movements are discernable among the German States.

An important change has taken place in the Turkish Ministry.

A treaty with Spain respecting the Cuban slave trade is before Parliment.

Kossuth made an eloquent speech at Sheffield on the nationality of Poland.

FRANCE.—Several defalcations are reported on Paris Bourse.

SPAIN.—Six war steamers, instead of four, are to be sent to Cuba, with 6,000 additional troops.

ITALY.—Rumors at Vienna that Russian ships are cruising in the Mediterranean, under neutral flags.
